Directory/Website Chair: Jim B – A number of groups have resumed "live" meetings, including a large number in Valley Springs, and I am trying to post any changes on the regular meeting pages on the Web site as soon as I receive notice of them. The "Printable" meeting list cannot be updated quite as rapidly (I've been trying to put out a new one every 2-3 weeks), so it may not include all the latest changes at any given time. Please continue to keep me updated with any details of changes in meeting schedules or formats, and I will try to keep the meeting information updated as accurately as possible. Thanks for your help with this.

Archivist: Kathy M: Marc reported. The Archive Committee canceled its meeting on June 2, 2021 due to health issues. The Archive Committee has met once live at the Jackson Fellowship in May. It is really good to connect live with our committee members. We met at Marc's (Alternate Archivist) house on Saturday, May 29, 2021 to continue our work toward creating a video for the Archives. We are working with our new Archive Committee Member Steve G. Steve is volunteering his time in helping us to create this historical District 30 video. We continue our work for Archive History Day. The flyer is being circulated and announced at meetings. Father Tom W is confirmed for our keynote speaker. A spaghetti dinner is on the agenda as well as Delta Intergroup who will have their chip and bling table. Area 07 will participate bringing a display. Jeff P, our Area Archivist will also be a speaker. We will have a potluck dessert table. Michael, Susan and myself are working toward getting all the archives into the new storage unit in Sonora. Unity Day supplies will also be stored there. Public Information and other resources will also be stored in the unit. The cabinets will be moved from the Jackson Fellowship as soon as we can coordinate volunteers to help us move these.
